

Pricketts Fort Summer Teacher Institute!
Teaching History Through the Arts

Fairmont, West Virginia, August 5-9, 2010

A summer teacher institute will be offered for any teacher who is interested in experiencing the arts of the 18th and 19th centuries. Meeting daily at Pricketts Fort in Fairmont, teachers will learn about the lessons that are available for their students, be introduced to the history and background material, and try their hand at various historic processes including traditional music and dance, storytelling, weaving, spinning, dyeing, basketry, blacksmithing, tinsmithing, scrimshaw, American Indian culture and more. The Institute will meet daily from Thursday, August 5 through Monday, August 9, 2010. Cost: PFMF Members $126, Non-members $140. Fee includes all activities including project materials and meals. Optional three graduate credits hours can be earned through Fairmont State for a fee of $99 (plus app fee) if desired. Space is limited to 25 teachers. Submit application form attached.
